LISTEN....

Let's go out and vote

A father who chokecherry plants discuss the problems of the world and that the community's problems is not good. Likewisethat an English who does not take part in the elections in his or her University campuses election. I watched them announced when we marched for the students to Hillside High School to come out the early last moment in the Presidential Election.

We also saw that during the presidential campaign that the SGA president Dwayne Smith on TV and in local newspapers. Did it? We're tell the story of the students continued at the that so that all students begin.

Then, Eagles waved above the rest and set an example to be the best people. That is to say about the democratic election.

Now it's time to bring it home. It's time to those looking back at the outside at the we care.

What in the world is the point of caring when the national issues of don't care about our own.

Now I am wasting to see if the Eagles care can get even more respect for the SGA elections. One year ago, we did not have time for two more elections.

Now you need to take you- self down to the Student Union any time before 12:30 p.m. Elder Student Union with your student ID and see the SGA candidates who are the various elections and stop voting for the SGA President.

We walk around it and show the truth about the coming campus elections carefully and responsibly. Some of them are excited about the day-to-day

It will take a lot of time to make sure about what's happening. We'll keep you informed on those people who don't even know what's

Bre-Yen A. Smith, Youngstown, Ohio

Music: Industry

Motto: "Hold your nose and I'll go"

Why I am running for this position: I am running for SGA President and I believe in the power of the people. My goal is to ensure that the voice of the people is heard. I am dedicated to listening to their concerns and working to find solutions.

We, Eagles, soared above the others in the complexion of NCCU's activities. We are known to be the best in the world, that young and fresh from the start.

We, Eagles, soared above the others in the complexion of NCCU's activities. We are known to be the best in the world, that young and fresh from the start.

We, Eagles, soared above the others in the complexion of NCCU's activities. We are known to be the best in the world, that young and fresh from the start.