Outside, the weather was beautiful. The sky was clear and the sun was shining. The students were enjoying the warm weather and taking advantage of the good weather. The campus was full of activity, with people walking, running, and sitting in the sun. The campus was buzzing with energy and the students were cheerful. The weather was perfect for a day on campus and everyone was making the most of it.