Dear Alumni and Friends:

I am delighted to welcome you back to the sloping hills and verdant green of North Carolina Central University. And speaking of welcomes, I offer heartfelt thanks to those of you who have reached out to me, offering support and good wishes in the four months since I arrived at NCCU. I am eager to meet as many of you as possible during this special week of Homecoming.

It is with great pride that I have accepted the challenge of leading this great university. Working together — students, faculty, staff, alumni and partners — we are continuing on our journey toward what I call Eagle Excellence, or “E-squared,” in our classrooms, on our campus and in our service.

I believe NCCU is a crown jewel of the UNC system. We are building a first-choice, premier global university. As alumni, you play an essential role in helping us achieve that goal. You are the lifeblood of NCCU. We appreciate the support and guidance you give current students and young alumni. We are grateful for your financial contributions, which enable our students to be successful and help the university fulfill its mission.

Our university has a solid foundation. NCCU’s historical resolve, resiliency and remarkable strength continue to inspire us. We are working harder, smarter and longer — but we must also rely more than ever on the support of our closest friends and supporters to help us keep our commitment to student success.

Over the next few days, be sure to reconnect with classmates, tour the campus, talk to the students, and enjoy being back in Durham.

In Truth and Service,

Dr. Debra Saunders-White
Chancellor

THE ALMA MATER

DEAR OLD N.C.C.

I
The sloping hills, the verdant green,
The lovely blossoms' beauteous sheen
Surround our college proud and gay,
Where wave our colors, Maroon and Gray.
What matters it how far we roam?
Our thoughts will oft return to home,
And hearts will e'er be true to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C.

REFRAIN:
Then Rah! Rah! Rah! For our colors so gay!
Dear old N.C.C.'s Maroon and Gray;
Thy sons and daughters will honor thee,
Dear old N.C.C.

II
We've gathered here to fit our lives,
As from the darkness light revives,
So let us hail, both night and day,
Our glorious colors, Maroon and Gray.
We'll ever love and honor thee,
For thou hast taught us loyalty.
Then let our watchword "service" be,
To Alma Mater, N.C.C.

III
You send us forth with hearts of love;
So like a blessing from above,
And from the path we'll never stray,
Our dear Alma Mater, Maroon and Gray.
We'll work and fight, we'll win our way.
When duty calls, we shall obey.
And may we e'er return to thee,
Our Alma Mater, N.C.C!
